Follow the Healer

Stephen Seamands

There is a simple, yet transformative, truth that fundamentally changes the way we think about and approach the ministry of praying for others to be healed. It’s the simple truth that Jesus heals—the healing ministry to which we are called is not primarily our ministry, but Christ’s. What we are called to do is to participate in his ongoing healing ministry. And as his ministry continues today through his body, the church, he invites us to join him.

John Wesley

John Wesley's most significant and enduring theological contribution was that of Christian perfection, the idea that as we grow in faith, God's spirit lovingly changes us until we become perfect in love. This book is Wesley's definitive work on the subject, offering a complete discussion of the doctrine and the process of entire sanctification along the spiritual journey.

THE SOWER'S CREED

Today, I sow for a great awakening.

Today, I stake everything on the promise of the Word of God.

I depend entirely on the power of the Holy Spirit.

I have the same mind in me that was in Christ Jesus.

Because Jesus is good news and Jesus is in me, I am good news.

Today, I will sow the extravagance of the gospel everywhere I go and into everyone I meet.

Today, I will love others as Jesus has loved me.

Today, I will remember that the tiniest seeds become the tallest trees; that the seeds of today become the shade of tomorrow; that the faith of right now becomes the future of the everlasting kingdom.

Today, I sow for a great awakening.
